A quarterly Newsletter for circulation among the Society's Members

website: www.noidasindhis.com

May-2017

From the Desk of the Chief Editor:

Friends,

I regret to say that Due to unforeseen circumstances this newsletter could not be published regularly as desired. Last time it was in July, 2013, when the newsletter was sent to you.

Since this is first newsletter of the year 2017, I wish you and all your family members a very happy, healthy and prosperous times for rest of this year.

During this period, many things have happened. Most important amongst them are the regular celebrations of 26th January, the day on which we had started Jhulelal temple, Lal Loi, Holi, Lal Chaliho, etc. In addition, we have been holding General Body Meetings in February and August every year. The names of the members of this year's Executive Committee are given in this newsletter.

We are turning a new leaf from this issue of newsletter which will contain 12 pages instead of 8pages. In addition to regular columns, we are starting a few new feats which I hope will encourage you to participate actively in this newsletter. These features would include an interview with a senior member of the society; a life sketch of a literary figure; a recipe of Sindhi cuisine, and a column giving your views about this newsletter.

I hope you would like all these. Also, I expect an active participation from all of you.

(Dr. Murli D. Bhawnani)

We do not get full information from members in time. The result is that as soon as we print their details these become stale.

The members are, therefore, requested to give the information about their family members with date of birth and marriage, the office/business address with telephone numbers and residence telephone numbers.

They should also give their email id so that information can be sent to them directly on their email address.

Suggestions are also invited to add features in our website www.noidasindhis.com

Their near and dear ones have left for Heavenly abode.

We all feel very deeply the loss that we have thus sustained and convey our heart-felt condolences to the families of all and pray to Almighty God to Keep their souls with Him and give courage to their families to bear their loss with patience.

1. Miss VINITA D/O Shri P RAVI
2. Mrs Janki m/o Shri RAJ Kumar Khatri

A Healthy Tip

You can enjoy that same Sindhi Phulka, Chahro Phulko, Satpuro, Koki, Mithi Loli with " Raw Extra Virgin Olive Oil or Canola Oil" if you are diabetic/ Heart Patient/ Obese or simply health conscious. Believe me! You will get almost the same taste along with the health benefits. Do not fry in Olive oil as the smoke point for olive oil is too low for deep frying. A lower smoke point doesn't allow you to get your oil hot enough to cook the food. Peanut or canola oil will work best for deep frying.

HEMU KALANI

Hemu Kalani was a great Sindhi revolutionary and freedom fighter during the India's Independence Movement. He was a leader of Swaraj Sena, a student organisation which was affiliated with All India Students Federation (AISF).

Born in Sukkur, Sindh (now in Pakistan) on 23rd March, 1923, Hemu Kalani got associated with India's Freedom Movement at the very young age. He took active part in Swadeshi Movement persuading people to boycott the foreign goods. He was later drawn to revolutionary activities and started participating in the acts of violent protests such as raids and burning of vehicles etc. belonging to British Raj with an aim to drive out the British from India. During one such act during Quit India Movement while removing the fish plate of railway line to derail the train carrying British Troops and ammunition, Hemu Kalani was caught by British troops

Hemu Kalani was imprisoned and tortured in an attempt to get him to reveal the names of his fellow revolutionaries involved in the act. He refused to divulge any information. He was put on trial and sentenced to death and was hanged on 21 January 1943.

To honor him, HEMU KALANI STATUES have been erected, roads and crossings have been named after him in various cities and town all over the country including a statue erected in Parliament Complex in front of the Dy Speaker's office. A list of a few such places where statue of Hemu Kalani is installed, is given under annexure

In order to inculcate the national feeling amongst youngsters it is our duty to remember and honor freedom fighters who have given their life for the nation
